

we have; of my fine shillings for my pen by which through your grace we bring at the present to my cheer. We should have been doubtless after sitting under the with the Rheumatism at Florence, and Buckingham are going to the Heaven; you will be interested at

Mrs Paxton
Chatsworth
Bakewell
Derbyshire
Paxton

Who were

Joseph & Sarah Paxton?

of Southdown to find a
of Southdown
the the house considerable at this house
and its contents
History of the present containing from day to day the things

Joseph Paxton (1803-1865)

Joseph Paxton was the head gardener at Chatsworth.

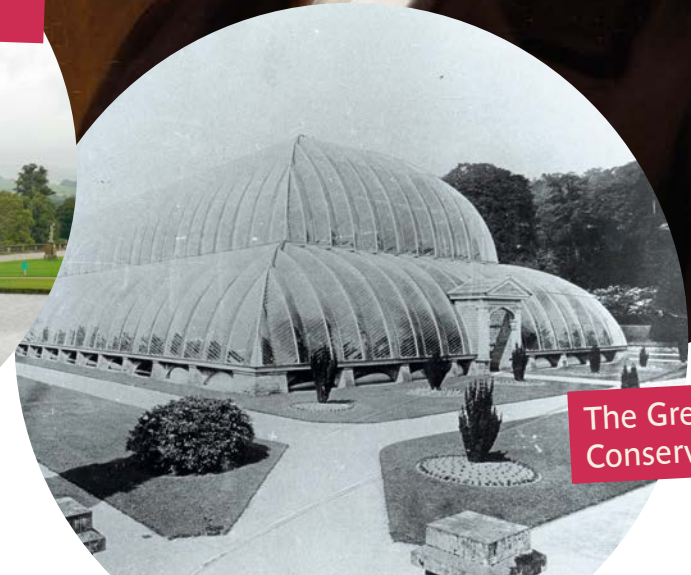

He designed and built:

- Glasshouses for tropical plants
- The Rock Garden
- The Emperor Fountain
- The Pinetum

He is also famous for designing The Crystal Palace in London for the Great Exhibition in 1851.

The Emperor Fountain

The Great Conservatory

Sarah Paxton (1800-1871)

Sarah was the Housekeeper's niece at Chatsworth.

Joseph met her on his first day working at Chatsworth and the following year they were married.

She was a very capable woman and managed Joseph's projects for him.

This simple drawing is the only existing image of Sarah Paxton

